Administrative Supplement Opportunity - Goals

- Support collaborative projects that are enable a driving scientific project
- Enable novel scientific inquiries by connecting multiple informatics tools to conduct integrative cancer research
- Collaborations involving integration of diverse data types and/or at multiple scales are encouraged
Administrative Supplement Opportunity - Details

- Respond through PA-14-077 (NIH Parent Admin Supp)
- Application budgets are limited to $50,000 Direct Costs per participating project
- Funds may be used to engage cancer researchers in use case development, testing, and validation
- Award project period is 1 year and must fall within the currently approved project period for the parent grant
- Application submission deadline is November 10, 2016
Administrative Supplement Opportunity – Research Strategy

Include:

- Participating investigators and funded projects of the application
- A description of the research and development goal(s) of the supplement project, including the proposed data sets to be used
- Plan and justification for the ITCR tools to be used for this project
- Relationship to the parent grant (administrative supplement awards must be within the scope of the parent grant)
- Innovations in concept and methodology
- Implementation details, including plans for scientific validation
- Project milestones and timelines
- Page limit: the Research Strategy section should be limited to 6 pages